

Aaron Morris

Senior Vice President of Finance

Aaron Morris has been with Phillips Edison & Company since 2009. Mr. Morris has over 17 years of accounting and reporting experience including both public and private accounting.

He has previously held several roles at Phillips Edison in accounting and financial reporting, including Director of Financial Reporting, Vice President of Accounting and Vice President of Corporate FP&A.

Before joining Phillips Edison, he served as a Senior Auditor with Deloitte. Mr. Morris also held a Staff Accountant position at Paycor, Inc. prior to his work at Deloitte.

Mr. Morris is a Certified Public Accountant and has received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Harding University and an MBA from Xavier University.

